Come intrigued. Leave inspired.

An update on Mint programming

As concern over the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19) grows, nothing is more important to us than the health and safety of our community.

For this reason, we have decided to cancel all Mint programming and events through the end of March. (This does NOT include weddings and corporate rentals.) We also are closing the Lewis Family Gallery at Mint Museum Uptown.

Both locations of the museum and galleries will remain open, and we will update our COVID-19-dedicated webpage regularly with all changes to programming. We also encourage you to follow us on social media (The Mint Museum on Facebook, @themintmuseum on Instagram, and @themintmuseum on Twitter) for real-time updates.
